

LA LINGUA LA VITA
presents
CAKE BAKING AND ITALIAN

Italian language course in the morning and Cake baking in the afternoon.

This course is designed for devotees of Italian cakes and pastries. It is taught by an expert Italian pasticcere who demonstrates traditional techniques for baking biscuits, cakes and pastries during which time, students are able to bake and taste local and national delicacies.

TEACHING is based on two different learning sessions: The first, looks at a better understanding of the Italian language structure, and how to put it into practical use. The second, focuses on the techniques used for baking various types of cakes and biscuits.

THE TOWN of TODI is a splendid setting for the course. It is steeped in art and history, and immersed in the wonderful green countryside of Umbria.

THE COURSE is for a minimum of one week and takes place from Monday to Friday. It includes 20 hours of Italian in group lessons. Cake baking is at the discretion of the student who can choose either a 5 or 10-hour course depending on what they plan to bake. The course takes place in historic buildings near the town's main square, and students live with selected host families, or in renovated apartments in the center of Todi.

Arrivals are on Sunday, with reception in the apartment or with the family.

Monday – Friday

9.00 - 13.00:

Italian group lesson, language structure and conversation.

Afternoon

Students are free to choose course hours depending on what they plan to bake. Courses can be personalized and programmed according to student requirements. The course is taught by qualified bakers who are professionals in their sector, and all practical work with them takes place in a kitchen. Starting from the basics, participants learn how to bake in a home environment and in a professional bakery, taking their creations home with them at the end: Italian brioches, fresh fruit pastries, chocolate or coconut cakes, crème patisserie, puff pastry and all kinds of biscuits.
