INLAY COURSES IN ITALIAN WITH PROFESSIONAL ITALIAN ARTIST (MR. DANIEL PARASECOLO)

Italian language courses in the morning followed by Inlay classes in the afternoon. Inlay is taught by an expert carver from Todi whose works are famous all over the world.

TEACHING is based on two key moments of learning, the collective and the individual. The first concerns lessons in class, where Italian language grammar and structures are studied and practiced both inside and around town, with the guidance of one of our highly skilled Italian language teachers. The second focuses on the study of techniques used in creating decorative pieces of woodwork.

THE CITY that hosts these courses is TODI, in Umbria, the 'Green Heart of Italy'. It is a medieval town that sits atop a hill in the lush greenery of the Umbrian countryside.

THE COURSE is a minimum of one week, it takes place Monday to Friday and includes 20 hours of language Italian group. The inlay course is instead at discretion of the student who can choose to attend between 15 to 25 hours of Inlay lessons.

The courses take place at the artist's studio which is only a 5-minute walk from the city's main square and from the school. The art studio is open three times a week and the end.

ACCOMMODATION is provided in selected family homes or in private apartments either in or near the center of Todi.

THE PROGRAM

Monday-Friday

9:00-13:00

Italian language lessons which review the grammar and structure of the language, while focusing on conversation, listening, reading and writing.

Monday to Friday

Afternoon Inlay

Students are free to choose the number of hours and days of classes they wish to attend. In 15 hours, students can build a small wooden panel (15x20cm). In 25 hours the students can create a larger wooden framework (20x25cm).

Saturday
