NABA will inform the student in the case a course will not be run at least 30 days prior the beginning of the course itself. 4. NABA reserves the right (up to 30 days before the beginning of the program) to:

- Cancel a course
- Change a course
- Change location of classes.

If a student withdraws up to 1 day before the beginning of the program, the student has the right to get a refund of the tuition fee and Academic Contribution Fee. Refund is not available for the pre-enrollment fee including the Regional Tax.

NABA reserves the right (except what's stated in paragraphs 1-2-3) to dismiss or expel a student at any time for non-payment of fees or any other due amount, failure to meet the ongoing attendance requirement, late commencement of study and/or withdrawal from courses commenced under any circumstances (personal reason, health problem, family related problem...). Following the student request to rejoin his/her career, the procedure requires both an academic evaluation and the assessment of any possible educational gap. After these checks, NABA will decide and inform the student about his/her year of attendance. It is made clear that the suspension of studies is not retroactive.

7. NABA reserves the right to use its discretion to determine number of courses and type of courses yearly set up for each program. NABA guarantees to enrolled students the minimum courses required to obtain the diploma within the prescribed time as defined by MIUR (Ministry of Education, University and Research) or any other current normative.

If the obtained level is below the required one, students will have to attend the language remedial courses, which are run by the Language Center - in order to reach the required level (CEFR B1+).

Only after the achievement of the above mentioned level, the student will be able to sit the exams. For further information please refer to the Director's Decree number 29 of 21/12/2017 (published in the student reserved area of NABA website called myNABA. The students who do not submit a valid language certificate (as per the language requirements reported in the application form) will be required to sit the NABA Language Test scheduled a few days before the beginning of the program . If, only for serious personal reasons, the students do not attend the scheduled Language Test, they will be summoned on another date. There will be only 2 extra sessions available from the students arrival date on campus and, in case they do not show up in any of the 3 available testing sessions, they will not be able to take part in the academic activities and will be removed from the online class registers (attendance records).

Furthermore, all students enrolled in the three-year BA courses in Italian are also required to take the NABA English language test in order to determine the level of proficiency in the language. The test results are expressed according to the grading system defined by the European Framework of Reference for languages (CEFR).
